FOOD & WINE COCKTAILS 2010
THE ESSENTIAL SUMMER ENTERTAINING GUIDE

—10 Cocktail Trends to Watch —
—Includes 150 Cocktail Recipes and List of Best Bars Worldwide —

New York, NY (April 29, 2010) — FOOD & WINE turns to the world's most respected experts to reveal the biggest trends in cocktails globally and share classic and creative drinks featuring everything from rum and whiskey to cutting-edge new spirits in FOOD & WINE Cocktails 2010. The sixth edition shifts its focus from United States to cover a global sampling of more than 150 cocktails and delectable party food. The pocket-sized book is available now on foodandwine.com and at bookstores nationwide for $14.95.

The editors also identify the 10 biggest trends in cocktails:

- Bespoke glassware
- Drinks as herb gardens
- Super-spicy cocktails
- Colder-than-ice spirits
- New rising-star spirits
- Tiki's comeback
- Avant-garde bar tools
- Bitters in any flavor
- Micro-batch mixers
- The return of liqueurs

The annual FOOD & WINE Cocktails also features:

- Over 150 outstanding cocktail recipes including summer favorites: Mango and Tarragon Martini (pg. 59), Luau Daiquiri (pg. 99), and Colonel Beach's Plantation Punch (pg. 102)
- First-ever guide to the best bars worldwide – from San Francisco and London to Tokyo and São Paulo
- A variety of global party-food recipes will keep your guests entertained, such as Chunky Guacamole from Mexico (p.

180), Croques Meurice from Paris (p. 186), and a Minetta Burger from New York City (pg. 202)

- Plus, Cocktail Clinic offers a guide to the must-have glasses and bar tools and an all-purpose rundown of essential spirits

This softcover book is an annual series from FOOD & WINE Books, which also publishes the F&W Annual, Best of the Best, F&W Wine Guide, F&W Quick from Scratch Chicken and F&W Quick from Scratch Italian.
